1) User has to run the script correctly per usage information.

2) user has to provide a valid path to directory that include the files to inspect.

3) IF the user want to save the results then he/she needs to provide a valid path to a .txt file.

Flowchart diagram